Initial Consultation

During our initial consultation we may take one to five x-rays of the perspective patient to help with the diagnosis and treatment recommendations during the initial exam/consultation. These x-rays remain a property of the office, Aligne Orthodontics and Orthotropic's. Should the patient/guardian request copies of said x-rays to be forwarded to another office, or would like to have them for their own use, charges to the patient and / or to the insurance company will apply. If for any reason the insurance denies payment for services, the patient is fully responsible for any and all charges.

Any records transfer requires a written request by the patient/guardian.
